Carilion Clinic Foundation invites professional artists to create an original work of art for “Art Opens Doors”, a silent auction to be held during an annual fundraising event the evening of November 28, 2017. This is an imaginative opportunity for artists to consider the welcoming feeling when entering through a door, both symbolically and literally with placement of the art within the home. All artwork for this auction should be ready to hang or place either on, or near, an exterior or interior door. This work of art should be no larger than 36” in any one direction and created from a durable material such as metal, clay, canvas or wood. Live plants will not be accepted. Limit of one entry per artist and early registration is encouraged for those interested. Contact healingarts@carilionclinic.org for the registration form and return it no later than October 15. All registered artwork will be accepted the week of November 13. The artist will receive 50% of the realized sales price (before sales tax) for his/her creation; the remaining 50% of the realized sales price will benefit the Dr. Robert L.A. Keeley Healing Arts Program at Carilion Clinic. Any items not sold will be returned to the artist.
